By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Apprehending William Mackintosh, commonly called Brigadier Mackintosh, Charles Wogan, James Talbot, Robert Hepburne, William Delmahoy, Alexander Delmahoy, John Tasker, and John Mackintosh.

GEORGE R.

WHereas William Mackintosh, commonly called Brigadier Mackintosh, who is a Tall Raw-Boned Man, about Sixty Years of Age, Fair Complexioned, Beetle-Browed, Grey-Eyed, speaks Broad Scotch, Charles Wogan, James Talbot, Robert Hepburne, William Delmahoy, Alexander Delmahoy, John Tasker, and John Mackintosh, who were lately Committed to the Goal of Newgate for High Treason, in Levying War against Us within this Realm, did, on Friday the Fourth Instant, make their Escape out of the said Goal; We have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Requiring and Commanding all Our Loving Subjects whatsoever, to use their utmost Endeavour to Discover and Apprehend the said William Mackintosh, Charles Wogan, James Talbot, Robert Hepburne, William Delmahoy, Alexander Delmahoy, John Tasker, and John Mackintosh, and to carry them before One of Our Justices of the Peace, who is hereby required to Commit them to the next Goal for the said High Treason, there to remain till they shall be discharged by due Course of Law; of which such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to give immediate Notice to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State. And for the Encouragement of all Persons to be Diligent and Careful in endeavouring to Discover and Apprehend the said Persons, We do hereby further declare, That whoever shall Apprehend and bring before such Justice of the Peace, the said respective Persons, or any of them, shall have and receive for such of them, so to be Apprehended and brought before a Justice of Peace, the Rewards following, That is to say, for the said William Mackintosh, the Sum of One thousand Pound; and for each of them the said Charles Wogan, James Talbot, Robert Hepburne, William Delmahoy, Alexander Delmahoy, John Tasker, and John Mackintosh, the Sum of Five hundred Pound: Which Rewards the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby Required and Directed to Pay accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fifth Day of May, 1716. In the Second Year of Our Reign.

God save the KING.

Westminster, May 7. This Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for charging and continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixteen, and for compelling several Receivers to finish and clear their Accounts; and for making Duplicates of Exchequer-Bills, Lottery-Tickets, and Orders lost, burnt, or destroyed; and for enlarging the Time for adjusting Claims to certain Benefit-Tickets; and for allowing the Charge of executing the Lottery-Act for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ten; and for recovering Monies of several Land-Taxes resting in the Hands of Collectors or Constables at St. Albans; and for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Soap; and for limitting a Time for Persons who have certain Annuities for Life or Lives to demand the Payments thereupon at the Exchequer; and for preventing Frauds in the Duties relating to Printed and Painted Paper, Callicoes, and other Things therein mentioned.

An Act to enable His Majesty to grant the Regalities and Lands now remaining in the Crown in North Wales, and South Wales, and County of Chester, to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in such Manner and Form as the Principality of Wales and Earldom of Chester have formerly been granted to the Princes of Wales; and also to enable His said Royal Highness to make Leases of Lands, Parcel of His Royal Highness's Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the same.

An Act for enlarging the Time of Continuance of Parliaments, appointed by an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the frequent Meeting and Calling of Parliaments.

An Act to indemnify such Persons who have acted in Defence of His Majesty's Person and Government, and for the Preservation of the Publick Peace of this Kingdom, in and about the Time of the late unnatural Rebellion, from vexatious Suits and Prosecutions.

An Act for the Attainder of George Earl of Marischal, William Earl of Seaforth, James Earl of Southesque, James Earl of Panmuir, and others, of High Treason, unless they shall render themselves to Justice by a Day certain therein mentioned.

And to several other Publick and Private Acts.

St. James's, May 7. The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty.

An humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale. Presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway. Presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Brigadier Steuart, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Copenhagen, May 9. On Wedneſday laſt being the 6th Inſtant, the Swediſh Fleet appeared near the Bay of Kiog, conſiſting of 16 Ships of the Line, 6 Frigates, 3 Brigantines, and one Bomb-Veſſel, and as the Wind was contrary to their Proceeding towards the Sound, they came to an Anchor in that Bay. It was the Opinion here, that their Deſign was to get through the Sound, in order to aſſiſt the King of Sweden in his Retreat with his Army from Norway. But as the Wind was fair the 7th and 8th, and they ſtill continue in the Bay of Kiog, we are at a Loſs what to think of their Intentions. There are 9 of our Ships of War, 2 of the Czar's, 3 Frigates and 2 Brigantines in this Road, which have Orders to make the beſt of their Way to joyn Vice-Admiral Gabel, in Caſe the Swedes endeavour to paſs the Sound.

Hamburg, May 12. The Swediſh Miniſter here has Letters from the Agent of that King at Lubec, which ſay, that Admiral Sparr, with 16 large Ships, and ſeveral Frigates, with other ſmaller Veſſels, had been ſeen near the Iſland of Draco. A Swediſh Ship from the Sound brought this News to the Agent, having been on board the Admiral himſelf. 'Tis ſaid, that the Daniſh Rear-Admiral Kaes, who has ſailed with 6 Men of War, finding that the whole Swediſh Fleet was near Bornholm, inſtead of 6 Ships, as it had been at firſt reported, retired in Time, and gave Notice of this Advice to the Admiralty at Copenhagen. We have no Letters from Norway, the King of Denmark continues ſtill at Gluckſtadt, from whence we have ſeveral Reports relating to Affairs in Norway, whereof we refer the Confirmation to further Advices; but 'tis ſaid in general that the Swedes abandoned the Town of Chriſtiania upon the approach of the Danes, the 29th of April; that ſeveral Paſſes being ſeized by the latter, the Swediſh Army would find many Difficulties in their Retreat, and ſome add, that there had been an Action, wherein the Danes had the Advantage, and that the Swediſh General Dalwig was killed.

Bruſſels, May 13. The Engineers Caſani and Van Bommel, who were appointed ſome Time ago to take an exact Survey of the Lands granted to the States General for an Extenſion of their Limits in Flanders, are returned to this Place, and have made their reſpective Reports; the former to Count Kinigſegg, and the latter to Monſieur Peſter: They differ in their Maps, and conſequently in the Manner of tracing out the Line of Separation between Auſtrian Flanders and that which is to belong to the States General, purſuant to the 17th Article of the Barrier-Treaty: But Count Kinigſegg and Monſieur Peſter will endeavour to adjuſt this whole Affair in a ſhort Time. The Intendants Bernier and Doujat, Commiſſioners on the Part of France for regulating the Separation of the Limits between the Auſtrian and French Netherlands, having raiſed ſeveral Difficulties, and particularly concerning Mortagne, with ſome of the adjacent Villages, Monſieur Triſquens and the Viſcount de Voght, the Imperial Commiſſioners, are come hither from Liſle, and having made their Report to Count Kinigſegg, are to return in a few Days with new Inſtructions. Our Letters from Vienna aſſure us that Prince Eugene of Savoy will be Governour-General of theſe Provinces, and the Marquis de Prié Adminiſtrator in his Abſence. We are in expectation of ſeeing the latter here in a ſhort Time, who will paſs by the Hague, in order to ſettle ſome Matters with the States General before he enters upon the Adminiſtration of this Government. Count Kinigſegg we hear is deſigned to be ſent Ambaſſador to the Court of France. The Prince Don Emanuel, Brother to the King of Portugal, arrived here the 9th Inſtant from the Hague, accompanyed only by the Count de Tarouca's Son and his Governour. On the 11th he ſet out Poſt for Paris. It is ſaid here, that he intends to go from thence in a little Time to Vienna, being inclinable to ſerve a Campaign in Hungary; where the Emperour has an Army of 115000 Men, according to the Liſt we have here, beſides a Body of 12000 in Tranſilvania.

Hague, May 15. The 10th Inſtant at Night Monſieur Duvenvoirde arrived here from his Embaſſy in England. The 12th in the Morning he appeared in the Aſſembly of the States General, and made a Report of his Negociations at the Court of Great Britain. There are ſome Advices here from Copenhagen of the 9th, which ſay, that Letters from Norway of the 5th, which came in juſt before the Departure of the Poſt, give an Account, that the Swediſh Army had quitted Chriſtiania, and were retiring towards their own Country; but that ſeveral Bodies of Danes having taken Poſſeſſion of ſome conſiderable Paſſes, it was likely the Swedes would be extreamly preſſed in their Retreat.

Notice is hereby given, that The Governours of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, have the Sum of four Thouſand Pounds in their Hands, to be divided into Twenty Shares, and diſtributed among Twenty Poor Livings, that are qualified to receive the ſame, purſuant to the Rules of the ſaid Governours.

Advertiſements.
